2. Recommendations

- 2.1 That the committee considers their desired focus/areas of work for the remainder of the 2021/22 period.
- 2.2 That the report be noted.

3. Current and completed work

3.1 Review of District Enforcement Pilot Task Group

The group met on Tuesday 9 November 2021 where they received requested information and the responses to their online public consultation. At this meeting, the group agreed five emerging draft recommendations and invited the relevant Portfolio Holder and officer to their final meeting.

3.2 Tourism recovery in Wyre Task Group

The draft report has been submitted to the Overview and Scrutiny Committee at the Monday 22 November 2021 meeting. The final report will go to Cabinet at their Wednesday 12 January 2022 for consideration.

4. Paused work

4.1 Review of the business model of Wyre's theatres and other council run facilities

At the last meeting, it was agreed for a scoping document to be produced. Since then, it has been suggested to members that this wait until Cabinet have received and commented on the Tourism Recovery task group report and recommendations before moving forward on this work.

5. Future work

5.1 Caravan holiday site occupancy and residential status

At the last meeting of the Overview and Scrutiny Committee, members received some clarification on this proposed future review.

Councillors requested the Democratic Services Officer to consult with the relevant officers to find out the scale of the issue.

This matter is bound up in legislation to which the timescales are unknown. Therefore, it is suggested that this matter be deferred until the position is clarified in law.
