The Police Businesses Community groups 3. To review the council's current ASB policies and procedures. 4. To assess the effectiveness of the mechanisms for how the authority responds to and deals with antisocial behaviour, including the community trigger. 5. To examine the effectiveness of multi-agency partnership working such as the Community Safety Partnership, in so far as it affects youth ASB. 6. To make succinct recommendations to Cabinet on what more the council can do to help reduce youth antisocial behaviour in Wyre. Since the beginning of the Covid-19 pandemic in March 2020, What specific value can Scrutiny add to reports of antisocial behaviour have significantly increased in this work area? Wyre. A review of how the council tackles antisocial behaviour will highlight potential areas of improvement to reduce ASB incidents. The review will identify areas of strategic focus to assist the council achieve its corporate objective (as set out in the Business Plan). An improvement to the levels of ASB in the community and how incidents are dealt with will result in better health and wellbeing and life opportunities for residents, whilst also protecting Wyre's USP, the Great Outdoors, from harm. In addition, a reduction in youth ASB has the potential of supporting the council in their ambition to raise the aspirations of young people. Overall, the review will assist the council in making Wyre a safer community for all residents and visitors. Methodology Review previous reports and documentation (see Review of the Business Plan proposal (see below) Interview witnesses at task group meetings Site visits Consultations with businesses and residents Review and compare the policies of other councils and their impact Limits of Review This review is not specific to any particular geographical location; therefore, it is a borough-wide issue. Crimes that do not fall under the definition of ASB should not be included in this review. This review is limited to youth related ASB.
