

Report of:	Meeting	Date
Councillor Henderson, Leader of the Council and Garry Payne, Chief Executive	Council	14 November 2019

Honorary Aldermen

1. Purpose of report

- 1.1 To enable the Council to consider conferring the title of Honorary Alderman on a number of former Councillors.

2. Outcomes

- 2.1 The appointment of four Honorary Aldermen.

3. Recommendations

- 3.1 That, in recognition of the eminent services rendered by them to the Council, the title of Honorary Aldermen be conferred on Marge Anderton, Ruth Duffy, John Hodgkinson and Terry Lees, at a special meeting of the Council on a date to be arranged by the Chief Executive.

4. Background

- 4.1 Section 249 of the Local Government Act 1972 states that:

“the Council may, by resolution passed by no less than two thirds of the Members voting thereon at a meeting of the Council specially convened for the purpose with notice of the object, confer the title of Honorary Alderman on persons who have, in the opinion of the Council, rendered eminent services to the Council, but are no longer Members of the Council”.

5. Key issues and proposals

- 5.1 In the past, the Council has only conferred the title of Honorary Aldermen on ex-Councillors who have served as a Councillor for at least 16 years, i.e. at least four full terms in office. All of the above have served four terms as Councillor, apart from Marge Anderton who only served for 15 years and 11 months. Owing to a by-election her term was shorter than normal and, in these exceptional circumstances, the usual rules have been relaxed.

- 5.2 It is proposed that the title of Honorary Alderman be conferred on the above named former Councillors, each of whom are deemed to have met the Council's criteria and have rendered eminent service to the Council.

Financial and legal implications
Finance	It is anticipated that any costs arising from the conferment of these titles will be met from within existing Mayoral budgets.
Legal	Set out in paragraph 4.1.
